

Master of Education in Educational Leadership (P-12 Tier I)

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Mercer's Tier I, M.Ed. in Educational Leadership is designed to prepare candidates for leadership positions up to the assistant principal within the school, or a variety of district-level leadership positions that do not supervise principals or other district leaders.

The 30 credit-hour program can be completed in 16 months, and includes relevant clinical practice, which provides opportunities for candidates to apply knowledge and skills learned in the program in a hands-on manner. Upon completion of the program and passing scores on the Georgia Assessments for the Certification of Educators (GACE) Educational Leadership content assessment, candidates will be eligible for Level 5 Educational Leadership certification. Any certified educator with one year of experience is eligible for this program.

Program Benefits

- 25% off tuition for Enterprise Learning Partnership (ELP) partners
- Fourth semester tuition covered by GENERATE Grant
- Learning Forward leadership training embedded in program
- Mentorship opportunity with GENERATE Grant M.A.T. students

Mercer University's Georgia Educators Networking to Revolutionize and Transform Education (GENERATE) teacher residency program provides a path for career changers to obtain Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) degrees, become certified teachers in Georgia, and teach in high-need content areas within partner school districts. The program provides individuals with the unique opportunity to receive mentorship from current M.Ed. in Educational Leadership (P-12 Tier I) students.
